

FOXTAIL KAYAKING TRIP MAP & KEY

DESCRIPTION:

Foxtail Trip: 5 miles (2 hours)

- Meet & Launch at Saguaro Lake Ranch
- Paddle down river for 5 miles to the exit called Foxtail
- Our shuttle will pick you and the equipment up from Foxtail and bring you back to the ranch

Available End of Spring/Summer/Beginning of Fall

- This portion of the river is seasonal. Each Fall, the Stewart Mountain Dam reduces the amount of water being released which causes the river level to decrease, making it unsuitable for kayaking and other water sport activities.
- The following Spring, the dam increases the amount of water released, making the water level suitable for kayaking and other water sport activities.
